Zoning Council Nixes 96-Unit Apt. Complex

The Canyon Planning and Zoning Commission denied Monday night a request for rezoning for construction of a 96-unit apartment complex and tabled a similar request for another small apartment building.

Denied was a request by R.H. Lacey, representative of Pecos Construction Co. of Roswell, N.M. He had sought a change in the zoning of acreage fronting 4th Street between 6th and 8th Avenues from single family to multiple family.

At a public hearing held during the meeting, Lacey's proposal met stiff and outspoken opposition from about 13 owners of property adjacent to the land in question.

Lacey had requested the zoning change to permit his company to construct a 96-unit apartment complex on the property. The complex was to consist of four or five buildings, each containing 16 to 24 units.

The planning and zoning commission denial will be referred to the Canyon City Commission for final action.

Lacey told the planning and zoning group Monday that the apartments will be owned by the New Mexico Council of Carpenters and will be operated by an Albuquerque professional management firm.

They will be financed through a title of Federal Housing Administration and will be for rent to families with moderate to lower incomes. He said the apartments would be rented on a pro-rated scale with price based on income.

The main objections of those portesting the proposed rezoning seemed to be based on the renting of the apartments to moderate and low income families, the increase in traffic and decrease of safety.

Wylie James of 401 6th Ave., told the commission "My main idea is that we don't need it."

"I'm trying to raise two boys and I feel safe to go downtown now. We get these people there and we don't know what we'll have. I'd be scared to have 100 families across the street from me."

All-Region Band Selects Thirteen

Thirteen Canyon High School students qualified for all-region band at tryouts held Monday at Caprock High School in Amarillo, according to Gary Zook, CHS band director.

"The students did real well," related Zook explaining that of 16 CHS students in the tryouts 13 were selected.

Named for all-regional band were Teddi Crager and Sharon Lumry, flutes; Doug Rittenberry, clarinet; Larry Hendrick, bass clarinet; Keith Zook and Tom Blackburn, oboes; Mike Raillard, bassoon; Jamie Martin, alto saxophone; Sarah Beth Meyer and Stephen Rhodes, bar-itones; and Eddie Carleton, Ric Wester and Chris Blasdel.

The all-regional winners will have rehearsals Friday and Saturday with a concert Saturday night in the Tascosa High School auditorium.

Chorale Featured At Fete

Houston Bright and his West Texas State University Chorale will be featured entertainment at the annual Phoenix Club dinner at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

The dinner will be held in the East Cafeteria on the WTSU campus.

This is the final year that Dr. Bright will be director of the university chorale although he will remain as composer in residence.

The chorale currently is on tour of the Panhandle.

Master of ceremonies for the dinner will be Hank Brown, director of the ex-students association.

New directors of the ex-students association will be introduced and President Duane Byars will outline the program (See CHORALE, Page 9)

Beat Cowboys 73-71 Monday Night Romping Buffs Look For Win

West Texas State University's Buffaloes, fresh from a hard-earned victory in their first game of the season, open their 1969-70 basketball home slate at 8 p.m. Thursday in Buffalo Fieldhouse against Pan American.

A freshman game between the WTSU Freshmen and the Midwestern University Junior Varsity starts at 6 p.m.

The Buffs, thanks to a stubborn defense and an 18-foot jump shot at the buzzer by James McCloud, edged Hardin-Simmons University, 73-71, Monday night in Abilene. Pan American opened its season that same night with a 94-85 win over Texas A & I.

Pan American's probable starters for Thursday will be 6-0 Stan Bane, 6-8 Frank Lorthridge, 6-5 Ed Mathis, 6-7 Calvin Oliver and 6-5 1/2 Fred Taylor. All of the starters, with the exception of Bane, started last year when the Buffs won eight and lost 17. Lorthridge paced the Buffs in their Monday night win with 28 points and 18 rebounds. Taylor hit 27 points, Oliver 16, Mathis nine and Bane, the squad's playmaker, was held scoreless.

The Buffs stopped Pan American, 91-63, last year. They were paced in scoring by the departed Simmie Hill, who had 20 points.

West Texas Coach Dennis Walling will probably go with the same starting lineup he used Monday night, which includes the 6-5 McCloud, 5-10 Ron Howle, 6-3 Dale Blaut, 6-7 Eddie Fitzgerald and 6-6 Gene Murdock.

Blaut paced West Texas in scoring Monday with 22 points. Ron Howle tallied 12 points, Murdock 11, and McCloud and Fitzgerald eight each.

Murdock, who was a standout Monday on defense, pulled in 14 rebounds to pace the club in that department.

The Buffaloes play another home game Saturday night, hosting Samford University from Birmingham, Ala., at 8 (See BUFFS, Page 9)

Moratorium Group Can Use SUB Facilities

BY CARROLL WILSON
A student-faculty group was given unanimous approval Wednesday afternoon to sponsor a day-and-a-half moratorium in the Student Union Building Ballroom at West Texas State University.

The newly-organized Student Union Board, which has twice before denied the group use of the building for a moratorium, reversed itself during the one-hour session.

The vote was taken after WTSU Librarian Frank Blackburn said he will sponsor the group which in turn sponsors the moratorium activities.

Blackburn had made public his intentions to sponsor the group last week at a meeting of the WTSU American Association of University Professors. Under the Student Union Board room-use policy, an administrative officer of the university—which Blackburn is—can formally recognize or sponsor a group which would otherwise be denied room use privileges.

But, it took about 45 minutes of haggling—including one vote by the board denying room use to the moratorium group—before the final decision was reached.

The first vote, which denied room use, was based on a request by John Green, representative of the student-faculty group, that the group be allowed to use the ballroom without official recognition from any administrative officer, dean or the Student Senate.

His request apparently reflected the true meat in Wednesday afternoon's bout.

Green contended that under the room-use policy, a group would be allowed to use a SUB room merely upon approval of the SUB board.

He cited a section of the policy which states this.

However, that attempt was blocked even prior to his request when, as the second order of the business for the board, members accepted a new student union building use policy.

The new policy—which is a she has been "unduly harsh" with the student she likes so well.

The play is directed by Mrs. Sherry Dambold and features Melba Kelley as Miss Dove with Pat Hickman and Anna Adams as Henry and Bernice Bradley, the rich parents of George Bradley. George is played by Kent Barnard.

Other main characters in the comedy drama are Jamie Martin as Randy Baker, Linda Clark as Lucerna, Cindy Stoner as Jincey Webb, Gene Morrison as Dr. Baker, Jackie Blanton as Billie Jean, Jackie Cook as Fred Makepeace, Larry Halter as Geoffrey Lyons, Chris Hull as Dr. Temple, James Boyce as Theodore Roosevelt, Chris Blasdel as Mr. Solomon, Lynda Foster as Mrs. DeGrazia, Dean Brown as Mr. Johnson, Walter Burkert as Mr. Porter and Glenda Holaday as Dr. Alice Wakefield.

Portraying students in the classroom of Miss Dove are Karen Malzahn, Seleta Abbott, Dell Holmes, Debbie Wright, Sara Taylor, Marjam Belcher, Rena Hillier, Annette Johnson and Sharon Freeman.

Backstage will be Karen Badrow, student director; Jamie Martin, stage manager; Martin and Tom Blackburn, lighting; Linda Foster and committee, props; Kim Durden and committee, makeup; David Freeman and Mike Lovelady, sound; Karen Malzahn and Suzanne Ellinwood, costumes; and Sheryl Pittard, hospitality.

Comedy Onstage Tonight

"Good Morning, Miss Dove" will be presented tonight, Thursday, and Friday night at Canyon High School as the first play of the year for the drama class.

Performances both nights will begin at 8:15 p.m. and tickets will be $1.25 for adults and $1 for students.

The three-act play is the story of an old maid school-teacher in a small town and her fondness for the son of the richest couple in Liberty Hill—a fondness which leads to her being brought before the school board on charges that

Lt. Col. Smith Is Reassigned

The professor of military science at West Texas State University, Lt. Col. Billy R. Smith, has received orders assigning him to a command position in Germany.

The colonel, who has headed the WTSU military science department three years, will leave Canyon July 1, 1970. He is to report to his command in Germany by Aug. 1, 1970.

No replacement has yet been named.

Lt. Col. Smith said he has tentatively been assigned as commander of an infantry battalion, which consists of about 850 men.

While in Canyon, the colonel has earned a masters degree from WTSU in education, and has done other work on educational administration.

Lt. Col. Smith came to Canyon and WTSU from Fort Bragg, N. C., where he was chief information officer.

He is a veteran of two tours in Vietnam and of the Korean War. He has also served in Hawaii and various stations in the United States, including a three-year teaching stint at Oklahoma State University with the department of military science.

"My stay in Canyon has been the most pleasant three years of my military service," the colonel (See SMITH, Page 9)

Halters with metal detector... digging for lost coins.

Treasure Hunt On Campus

BY CARROLL WILSON
John Halter's next date may depend on what he sifts from the soil on the West Texas State University campus.

There may be easier and more lucrative ways to make money, but for Halter and a fellow student there is a certain fascination in searching out loose change.

Equipped with instruments which resemble a broom handle with a box on one end and a small red ring on the other, the two students traverse the campus like mine-sweepers in search of dropped or lost coins.

Monte Akers, a sophomore from Higgins, began hunting coins on campus when school started this semester. Halter, a freshman from Belton, saw him one day and they've been literally sounding out the campus together.

Their instruments—which are called metal detectors—work on a sound frequency. When the small ring passes over an area which does not contain metal of some sort, the instrument emits through head phones a low monotone. When, however, the ring passes over a metallic object, the frequency of the sound increases.

Halter just began using his metal detector Tuesday. He found only seven cents.

Akers has had more luck. Since the opening of school he has found three or four dollars. He found 70 cents Monday.

Halter and Akers are coin collectors and it is the exciting possibility of finding a rare or old coin which partially spurs them in their efforts.

"I got mine about two years ago to find coins mostly," Halter said.

He says he hasn't added any new coins to his collection in that time, and is now looking for money to finance dates and Christmas gifts.

"I did find my senior (See TREASURE, Page 9)

Named To All-District Team Five Eagles Win Honors

Five Canyon High School Eagle footballers have been named to the all-district football first team from district 3-AAA.

All-district first team members from Canyon are Cal Yarbrough, David Erwin, Kelly Tinsley, Andy Hanson and Steve Russell.

Named to the all-district second team from Canyon were Allen Bedell, Ron Minier and Sandy Hair.

Honorable mention all-district players are Chris Hull, Rick Hales and Frank Belcher. Head Eagle Coach Dunny Goode announced the team members Tuesday.

Yarbrough is a six-foot, 200-pound, senior offensive tackle. Erwin is a slight 145-pound senior speedster who had Canyon fans out of their seats much of the season as a ace running back.

Tinsley is a stout 6-1, 195-pound defensive tackle, who will return to varsity play next season for the Eagles.

Hanson is a 6-1, 180-pound linebacker. He is a senior. Russell is a 6-1, 140-pound defensive back, who is also a senior.

Bedell is a senior offensive tackle. Hull is a center. Minier is a guard. Hales a line- (See FIVE, Page 9)

FROM THE CANYON RIM

I have a few questions for those who are locally associated with the moratorium.

President Nixon has repeatedly said he will Vietnamize the war as soon as possible.

What would you people do to disengage?

The last time any sizeable number of soldiers were withdrawn from combat during a shooting war was at Dunkirk. The casualties were tragic.

Would any of you people be willing to go and fight with the vanguard while our troops are being withdrawn?

Our alternatives in Vietnam actually are very limited. We can bolster the South Vietnamese and hope that they can sustain themselves while we withdraw or we can accept horrifying casualties while withdrawal is in progress.

There is one other alternative. We could smash North Vietnam before we withdraw.

For the sake of argument let us say we could withdraw today (we could not) with acceptable casualties. What are the moral issues involved?

As we have said before, South Vietnam would get a blood bath similar to the gory wetting of China after the communists came to power there.

I think what Kenneth H. W. Hilborn, associate professor of history at the University of Western Ontario, had to say on the subject is more to the point than any statement I might make.

"I am at a loss to understand how George W. Ball can believe that U. S. national interest in Berlin is fundamental and in Vietnam only marginal," declared Hilborn.

"As an isolated and militarily indefensible outpost, West Berlin is of no strategic value; it is indeed a liability, because fears of Soviet retaliatory pressures against the hostage city restrict American freedom of action elsewhere."

"The decisive argument against abandonment of Berlin is simply that to surrender a U. S.-protected non-communist population to communist rule would be a morally intolerable betrayal, and that for Washington to let itself be coerced into committing such a betrayal would have devastating consequences on anti-communist morale."

"Except in the eyes of racists, who may consider non-communist Asians more expendable than European ones, the same moral and psychological considerations apply in Vietnam. They are reinforced by the fact that South Vietnam occupies a key strategic position in relation to Southeast Asia—a point I have heard emphasized in Malaysia and Singapore."

Mark my word, if we withdraw unilaterally and dishonorably from Vietnam it will be to the delight and through the machinations of the communist world.

We will be as isolated as we were in the days of the nineteenth but even more completely because no nation on the face of the earth could possibly have any faith in us.

This too would delight Peking, Moscow and Hanoi and no doubt some of our domestic well-wishers of the world comintern.

The Panhandle Regional Planning Commission is digging its own grave with closed meetings.

Almost every session is terminated with a closed meeting. I think this is a sickness contracted from the Amarillo city commission which holds pre-meetings, executive meetings and post-session meetings.

R. G. Mills of the Amarillo city commission is chairman of the PRC and Amarillo City Manager John Stiff appears to be calling the shots for it.

Amarillo news media may think closed meetings are all right. Apparently they do. Here in Canyon we don't cotton to executive sessions of any kind for any purpose and I intend to keep battling until it is against the law for a governmental board to hold one.

Our World

By Ann Brown
We are living in an age of mediocrity.

America became great because Americans were good. In addition to being morally and spiritually good, the pioneers were good craftsmen. Whether they were planters, preachers, teachers, carpenters, engineers, inventors, soldiers, statesmen, or shoe cobblers, they were good ones; they took pride in their work.

The modernists who are propagating the story that the Pilgrims were sadists who slaughtered the Indians and stole their lands, need to check the facts. American Indians are the only people in recorded history who received any compensation for their lost territory.

Other vanquished peoples have been killed, banished, or enslaved. And that has usually applied even to the losers in civil wars. Remember the Russian farmers in the Ukraine? Note the fate of China's millions who have resisted Communism. And what about our Cuban refugees?

It is a law of nature that man use or lose his gifts. Through many centuries, the Indians did nothing toward developing this rich land. Ingenious Americans have used it to bless the world.

We still have many Americans with genius and integrity; our conquest of the moon alone is eloquent proof of that. But our beautiful land is cursed with teachers who won't teach, students who won't study, waiters who won't serve, carpenters who won't build, laborers who won't work, soldiers who won't fight, lawyers who destroy the law, judges who obstruct justice, and "statesmen" who betray the State.

There are many complex causes of the decadence of our people, but the majority of the trouble begins in the home. It cannot be denied that the Amer-

Scouters Banquet Is Monday

Scout Recognition Banquet for the Randall District of Llano Estacado Council will be held Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. at the Canyon High School cafeteria.

The family affair will be a covered dish meal with families reminded to furnish their own eating utensils. Bread and drinks will be furnished.

After the meal, Elton Baker will speak on the Palo Duro Canyon State Park and numerous awards will be presented including an attendance plaque for the troop with the best percentage attendance at the banquet.

Other awards will include adult training awards, national camping awards, recognition and awards for the 1969 Eagle Scouts, and the installation of the 1970 District officers.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it—and so do its readers.

ican taxpayer supports colleges that destroy the faith and morals he has taught his children. If, however, he has properly guided his youngsters by precept and example, college is not likely to ruin them.

But when parents admonish their children to "get an education so you won't have to work like we do" what can they expect?

Children should be taught that any honest work is honorable, and that it is a privilege to have the capacity and opportunity to work. They should also be apprised of the fact that the wealth which does not come from one's own efforts seldom brings either joy or blessings.

It takes discipline to acquire skills and to perform constructive work. But when permissive parents send spoiled, undisciplined children to school, and permissive teachers encourage them to "progress at their own rate" (a sophisticated way of saying "do as you please"), the poor kids do well to come out mediocre.

Every farmer knows that cultivated land left to its own discretion is not likely to grow anything but weeds and briars. If it is to grow food, fiber, or flowers, good seed must be planted, and the plants carefully nurtured. Children react exactly like the good earth.

Another cause of mediocrity is our tax structure, which penalizes industry and thrift, and rewards extravagance and waste. Taxes have shaped our economy so that a business man must maintain a huge operation if he is to make a practical profit. However, the employees essential to any big business are likely to drive the employer mad. So, for survival, many give up and become cogs in other wheels.

Statistics indicate that 1 in every 10 shoppers is a thief, and that shoplifters steal about $2 billion a year. Many business men report that the employees steal even more than the customers. (Regardless of who does the stealing, the paying customers must pick up the tab.)

If one is to rise above the crowd he must have honesty and integrity. But these virtues are outmoded. It is reported that 90% of the shoplifters are housewives; no doubt the majority of such women are mothers. How could they possibly teach their children to be honest?

Excellence is an American birthright. No one can excel at everything, but in this land of opportunity, everyone could—and should—excel at something.

Our great Nation was built by great people; it cannot be maintained by mediocre ones.

Mustachioed Students Seek Club Charter

A small group of West Texas State University students, all of which are members of a student-faculty group organizing a moratorium day for the university, have formed an organization—Freedom Forum.

Following a meeting of the moratorium day planners, the students, mustachioed in the style of Pancho Villa, attended a WTSU Student Senate meeting to ask for recognition as a campus organization.

Freedom Forum, according to stated by-laws, has as its goal the preservation "of academic freedom." Also as stated, it is formed "to encourage free thought by offering ourselves as a platform for programs of national and international significance."

According to a form presented the Senate, the group will present discussions "pro and con" on issues.

The form states that John Green, Bob Blinderman and Gary Edwards are officers of the club.

Blinderman said the organization will be lead by a triumvirate. He and Edwards are from Amarillo and Green is from Canyon.

First meeting of the group will be at noon Friday in the office of Dr. Darrell Munsell, associate professor of history at WTSU. Dr. Munsell is a member of the student-faculty moratorium group, as are Edwards, Green and Blinderman.

Blinderman said the Freedom Forum is not a formal organizing of the moratorium day group. He indicated it is a splinter group of that group.

The Freedom Forum Monday sought provisional recognition from the Senate, which would allow them to use Student Union

Home-Family Relationships Discussed By Sue Hite Club

"Building the home as a haven for each family member is the greatest masterpiece of womanhood," stated Mrs. Ann Brown as she spoke last Monday afternoon to the Sue Hite Club of Canyon.

Mrs. Brown stressed that "each family member should be able to relax and enjoy the home atmosphere." She related the importance of mothers and said that "mothers are 80 percent responsible for the home."

"Mothers set the tone and create the environment of the home," she related. "Family life is not necessary at all in a totalitarian state. The children will continue to grow strong and healthy physically in a state institution."

"But democracy is built on the pattern of family life," she related. Continuing she stated that "working homemakers today are viewed differently now than 30 years ago, but that no career will take the place of a woman's career in the home."

The family should lead the way in family affairs such as going to church or to the swimming pool—it is important that the children go with the family to these events, according to Mrs. Brown.

She said "when teenagers want to leave home, we need to ask WHY" and that fathers and families "should think more of their families than just the financial status."

"The family is the most important investment—and it pays the highest dividends," concluded Mrs. Brown.

She urged that all family members should have "long and short term goals with an ultimate goal—and as each goal is reached, set another."

Family members should be "encouraged to do as they please without infringing on the rights of others," she related. "Everyone has to do some things they want to be happy."

Homes should have rules that are reasonable, clear, democratic and clearly understood, concluded Mrs. Brown as she stated that "children go by example more than rules—and a sense of belonging is essential to human welfare."

Her program was concluded with a question-answer session among the Sue Hite Club members. She was introduced on the program by Mrs. Robert Splawn.

Preceding the program was a business session directed by Mrs. R. Crews Henry, president, with the opening invocation given by Margaret Moore and regular business and reports given.

Coffee, punch and cake slices were served from a table laid with an applied Thanksgiving cloth.

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. A. H. Prichard with Alma Perkins and Margaret Moore as co-hostesses.

exercising is Doneta Gayle "DeeDee" Jackson who suffered from a brain hemorrhage at school October 31.

Mrs. Jackson reported that "DeeDee" still has to be very quiet but may be able to start inbound student classes very soon.

According to Mrs. Jackson, "DeeDee" was released in time for Thanksgiving and that the family really had a reason to be thankful as there could have been many permanent injuries due to the hemorrhage.

Holiday company in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fowlkes were their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Fowlkes, Cindy and Alicia, from St. Joseph, Missouri.

Those attending the Thanksgiving Day dinner were the Dale Fowlkes family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fowlkes, Sandy, Brad, and Bo, Mrs. A. G. Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fowlkes. Many other area guests were received by the families throughout the four-day holiday.

A birthday dinner was held Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Palmer for Mrs. Palmer's mother, Mrs. E. C. Wakefield.

Mrs. Wakefield celebrated her 62nd birthday with approximately thirty members of the family and friends attending the affair.

All were from this area except Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gables who were from Muleshoe, Texas.

Out of town for the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cannon who were in Purcell, Oklahoma where they visited with Mrs. Cannon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hall.

Approximately forty-five members of the family attended the holiday dinner, most of them coming from the Oklahoma area.

A beautiful time of the year to spend in Hawaii--so say the Winton Campbells!

They have recently returned from a week's vacation in Honolulu. Their hotel bordered on the Waukiki Beach where they spent much of their time in the sun.

Some of the places they visited were Pearl Harbor, the National Memorial Cemetery where the war dead of World War II were buried. This is also the place that holds the grave of war correspondent, Ernie Pyle.

Mrs. Campbell said that while they were there, the temperatures were consistently in the middle 70s to the low 80s which made their visits to the pineapple and sugar cane fields very pleasant.

She said that they also went through the Alamano, the largest shopping center in the world with 210 shops under one roof.

Before returning home, they did some of their Christmas shopping and brought souvenirs of grass skirts to their daughters, Kelli and Darla.

New neighbors in the area are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopper and their fifteen-year old daughter, Rochelle.

Their home as just been completed in the Holiday South addition and they have moved in this week.

The Hoppers are members of the Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church in Amarillo.

Hobbies of the Hoppers include collections of antique autos and other antique items. In his collection, Hopper has two out-dated fire engines. The family likes to spend much of their time for family get-togethers which really takes place of many time consuming hobbies.

Walter is an engineer for the Santa Fe railroad and works out of Amarillo.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hodges over the holidays were two of Mrs. Hodges' sisters, Miss Shirley Bishop and Mrs. C. E. Hodges, both from West Monroe, Louisiana.

Also there for the festivities was her brother, Buddy Bishop, from Boston, Massachusetts.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Randal Owen were Mrs. Owen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Foster, her brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Foster and son, her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Guzman and son, all from Quanah.

Also attending the holiday affair was a sister-in-law Mrs. Phil Foster and her family from Holiday, Texas and a sister, Mrs. Gerald Loveless and her family from Wichita Falls.

All were on hand to celebrate the Thanksgiving feast that appeared so bountiful on many tables across the country.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. David Camfield entertained out of town company over the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mrs. Camfield's brother and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Haxel, Nash, and Jo Carole from Siloam Springs, Arkansas were visiting for several days prior and including the holiday.

Spending their holiday in the resort area of Steamboat Springs, Colorado were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Riley, and their children, Rusty, Randy, and Tanya.

The resort happens to be the home of Mrs. Riley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weeks with whom the Rileys stayed.

Before completing their trip, the Rileys spent some time visiting Royal Gorge and Silver City.

Mrs. Winona Wheeler from Clovis, New Mexico was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jackson of Mesalero Park over the holidays.

Mrs. Wheeler, mother of Mrs. Jackson, was here for several days visiting with the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holmes had a family gathering at their home for the holidays.

Their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Dwain Holmes were home from Lubbock where Dwain is a student of mechanical engineering at Texas Tech University; their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wilson and daughter Diane were here from Dallas; and Mrs. Holmes' mother, Mrs. C. W. Harp was also present from Amarillo for the occasion.

LaGrone Funeral Chapel
1702 5th AVE CANYON

Dear friends,

Yes, there is such a thing as an 'expensive' funeral. Any funeral is expensive if the cost means undue hardship to those who survive.

Many clients have talked this matter over with us frankly and they have found that the problem can be solved without detracting from their natural desire to pay a fitting tribute. Complete information is yours for the asking.

Respectfully,

Jerry N. LaGrone

Haggard, who was head of the department of accounting at the university until his retirement in July, had taught at the university for a period of 27 years, 15 of which were as head of the accounting department. He earned the B. S. at North Texas State University, M. B. A. at the University of Texas and was conferred the CPA (certified public accountant) rating from the state of Texas in 1948.

Glen Metcalf To Vietnam

Spec. 4 Glen Metcalf left last Monday for a tour of duty in Vietnam after spending three weeks here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Metcalf, and other friends and relatives. His wife is the former Andrea Lair of Canyon. Metcalf finished basic training at Fort Bliss in El Paso and was in the personnel management department before his assignment to Vietnam.

The University Chorale will perform in concert December 7 at 3 p.m. in the auditorium of the Fine Arts Building on the campus of West Texas State University.

Directed by Houston Bright, the chorale is the top choral concert organization at WT. Its membership is chosen by careful and rigid audition and membership is confined to the 60 finest voices at the university. Most are vocal majors, some are instrumental music students and a few voices come from other departments of the school.

Each year the Chorale tours within an area extending from Clovis, New Mexico to Wichita Falls and from Liberal, Kansas to San Angelo. They perform in high schools, churches, public auditoriums and in convention halls.

...Lost Purse...

Mrs. Reva Tomlin reports the loss of her purse a week ago Sunday in the vicinity of 1708 Fourth Avenue.

The purse contained considerable cash and some other valuables.

Mrs. Tomlin is most concerned about the loss of pictures of her late husband. These are not replaceable, she says. She said that if the pictures are returned no questions will be asked. Her telephone number is 655-3194.

Testimony Underway In Trial

Testimony in the aggravated assault case of Gordon Weldon Massey was in progress Wednesday afternoon.

Massey is charged with aggravated assault on Amarillo Policeman James A. Hudson early the morning of Sept. 1 in South Amarillo.

Hudson testified that Massey hit him and cursed him when he answered a disturbance call on South Monroe Street that morning.

Testifying on cross-examination Massey said he had been drinking, was angry and just doesn't like policemen. Hudson said the assault began while he was outside Massey's car trying to get the defendant to get out.

Massey says he did not strike the officer until Hudson entered his car.

Testimony reflects that three officers were required to subdue and handcuff the defendant.

The Chorale also performs local concerts for the Amarillo, Canyon and university public and it also receives frequent invitations to sing for district, state, and regional conventions.

Group....
 issue of whether the room shall or shall not be used for a moratorium by the group boils down to an issue of freedom of speech.
 "I don't agree with their (the group's) tenets. I'm diametrically opposed to them. But, that's not the point," he said. "I request the board, since the original petition was under the guidelines in use at that time, and they had no chance to comply with these rules, grant acceptance to this group."
 Following Greer's comments, John Roberts, another WTSU student, stood and read from a prepared statement.
 He prefaced his remarks by saying they were prepared by a group of veterans--many of whom have seen tours in Vietnam.
 The statement stated that the group is opposed to any activity "which would in any way disrupt the life of the university community."
 He said the moratorium is "disloyal and un-American and a betrayal of the fighting men in Vietnam."
 More discussion culminated in the first vote of the afternoon--the vote which denied use of the facilities.
 However, Blackburn then accepted the floor and said he would recognize the student-faculty moratorium group.
 Dr. T. Paige Carruth, dean of student life at WTSU, moved the approval be granted and the motion carried unanimously.
 Dr. Darrell Munsell, a faculty member of the moratorium group, passed out copies of the tentative program of activities for the moratorium day.
 From 8-10 p.m. Dec. 9, three films--"Vietnam: How Did We Get In? How Can We Get Out?," "Time of the Locust," and "Variations on a Theme" will be shown.
 From 9 a.m. to noon Dec. 10, the films will again be shown. From noon to 1 p.m., a student panel discussion--presenting both the pros and cons of Pre-

PANHANDLE PLAINS Historical Museum located at WTSU is the title for a story appearing in the November 1969 issue of "The Cattleman" magazine. Mrs. Newton Crain, museum archives librarian, is shown with the magazine and the article which describes the early history of the area, describes the museum collections, art department and library archives. According to the article the museum "is a tribute to those men and women who dreamed of erecting such a place where this rich heritage could be perpetuated."

 erty owner, said he is "definitely against it due to the traffic situation."
 Whitten said traffic in that area is "more now than we can handle."
 Another owner, R. E. White, said the apartment would cause "too much congestion there."
 "There'd be too many people in the area. The way it is we've got a quiet neighborhood. You get more people, you get more traffic and more hazard," S. W. Blake said he is afraid the apartments would devalue his property in the area.
 "I don't think the neighborhood is equipped to handle this type complex," he said. "I don't mean to be discriminatory, but I think it will bring in an undesirable element this town doesn't need."
 The commission tabled a request by Mrs. H. O. Baker of California and Mrs. Mae Nelson of Lubbock to rezone property on 13th Avenue from single family to multiple family to allow construction of a four-unit apartment complex or two duplexes.
 A public hearing was called for the first Monday in January on the proposed rezoning.
 The commission denied a request by Elmer Clement of Canyon for a change in zoning in the west part of town for construction of a mobile home park.
 In other business, the commission voted to inform the city commission that a suitable fee should be charged persons wishing to have property rezoned or desiring special use permits.

 ring," he said. "I lost it on a football field last September and found it in December. I just started walking from one end of the field to the other with the detector."
 Akers said his girl friend's father introduced him to coin hunting when the father gave Akers an old metal detector.
 "If you buy one (a metal detector) thinking you'll find some kind of treasure, you'll be disappointed," Akers said. "But, the chance that you might find treasure is exciting."
 Akers is a Civil War buff and coin collector. He would like to find a coin relating to the Civil War period.
 The students said the best spots for finding coins are well-worn paths, park benches, or just any place where people congregate.
 One of the prime targets for the two has been a small lot east of the Reserve Officer Training Corps classroom building. The counter-guerrilla unit at WTSU works out in that area and apparently lose small amounts of change.
 Wherever their instruments indicate metal, the boys hunt the ground's surface. But, more than likely, the object will not be above ground and the two will have to dig to find it.
 Because of the resulting holes, Halter said coin hunters in other parts of the country have been banned from public parks. He says he's careful, though, to fill up any holes he digs.
 "Leaving holes gives a bad name to anybody who does this," he said.

 Lt. Col. Smith said he would like to return to Canyon upon his retirement from the military.
 "The cooperation of the staff and faculty of WTSU, particularly of Dr. (James P.) Cornette, has been superb," he said. "I feel a sense of pride and gratitude in having such a wonderful situation as created by the administration, faculty and community."
 During Lt. Col. Smith's tenure at West Texas State, the Reserve Officer Training Corps has grown from 14th of 30 schools in the Southwest to 7th in enrollment. The department's largest senior and junior classes have been recorded under the colonel.
 In addition several innovations have been added to the curriculum under his reigns, including night ROTC courses, a summer ROTC course, multiple drill days, a Non-Commissioned Officers Academy for junior students, and Hero Field, a physical training course.
 The colonel is married and has four children.

 Coach Goode was pleased with the number of Eagles placed on the first team. Only three Canyon students made the first team last season, he said.
 He noted that Dumas, which won the district crown this year, dominates the first team membership. He said they have six placed on the offensive first team and three on the first team defensive unit.

'69 Eagles Improved

Head Eagle football Coach Dunny Goode feels that the 1969 grid season represented an over-all improvement in the high school program and there is more than a winning varsity season to back up his contention.

The win over Tulla in the last game of the season gave the Eagles a 5-4-1 record, the first winning season ever for Canyon High in Class 3-A competition.

Combined with the undefeated junior varsity's record Canyon High teams had a 14-4-1 overall record compared to 1968, Goode's first year as head coach, when the varsity and junior varsity had a combined record of 11-8.

The year before Goode came to Canyon the Eagle varsity and junior varsity had a combined record of 2-11.

"I'm pleased with the over-all progress we've made, especially in participation in the football program," Goode said. "The participation in high school football has increased from 37 boys in 1967 to 121 this year."

Another giant step toward an improved program is due next year as Coach Goode has chosen to send his Eagles against the toughest non-district competition any Canyon

High team has ever faced. "We're going from a 2-A to a 4-A schedule next year because we know the tougher competition in the early part of the season will mature our kids earlier for district play."

"Next year's schedule will be the toughest schedule Canyon High School has ever undertaken in the history of the school—the very toughest."

The schedule includes four Class 4-A teams with Spearman the only 2-A team remaining on the list.

On Sept. 11 the Eagles will travel to Clovis for an 8:30 p.m. (CST) contest with a school of the highest competition category in New Mexico and two weeks later they will take on 4-A Caprock on the Longhorns homeground.

Oct. 2 will find the Eagles playing host to Lubbock High School and on Oct. 9 the Class 3-A Canyon team travels to Pampa to take on another 4-A team.

The Spearman game will be the week following the Clovis duel.

The progress of Coach Goode's varsity teams since he took the reins in 1968 can be seen clearly from the amount of points scored by the Eagles and the amount of points they have given up during the two seasons. In 1967, the year before Goode came to Canyon, the Eagles scored only 58 points all season while their opponents racked up a whopping 348.

During Goode's first season as head coach the Eagles doubled their point production to 117 while yielding 267 to opponents.

This past season the Eagles actually outscored their opponents 151 to 135.

Coach Goode gives a large share of the credit for this marked improvement to his coaching staff consisting of Jack York, Clark Mires, B. B. Kendrick, Bob Schneider and Philip Ely.

"I think we have here at Canyon High the finest group of coaches assembled anywhere," Goode said. "Their dedication and professionalism has contributed greatly to the overall improvement in our program. I just can't say enough about their fine work."

Eagles Win, Lose Also

Canyon's Eagles beat Spearman Monday night, but ran into a little cold shooting Tuesday as they fell 90-70 to Plainview.

Plainview was hot Tuesday and they hit 66 per cent from the field. Coach B. B. Kendrick of Canyon said the Bulldogs missed only seven shots from the field during the second half.

The Bulldogs started off in the first quarter commanding only a seven-point lead, but at the half they had doubled their lead and Canyon trailed 49-24. Even though the Eagles tried catch-up, they were unable to match the hot shooting of Plainview and ended the third period down 68-37.

Jerry Landrum hit a fantastic 35 points for the Eagles while Bobby Martin hit 16 for the losers. Top Plainview scorer was Charles Bassett with 20.

Kendrick said the Eagles hit about 37 per cent from the field in playing what he termed the second best team the Canyon team has met this year. Plainview is a AAAA school.

In beating Spearman 69-62 Monday, the Eagles rebounded from a loss to Amarillo High and a win over Lubbock Dunbar 84-66. The Lynx never had a chance as the Eagles led through each quarter.

Kendrick said his boys hit 42 per cent from the field and 74 per cent from the charity line.

The Spearman game resulted in five Eagles shooting in double figures. Keith Keeling was top scorer with 19, followed by Jerry Landrum with 18, Dorsey Pennington with 14, Bobby Martin with 12 and Lynn Salmon with 11.

The Eagle record now stands at 2 wins and 2 losses. Canyon meets Enid, Okla., at 7:30 p.m. today in the first round of the three-day Pampa Tournament in Pampa. The Eagles will be in Pampa through Saturday.

It was his first ace in some seven years of golfing. Farquhar has shot five holes in one for his career.

Fire Destroys City Building

A small city-owned building at the Canyon dump ground was destroyed by fire about 9:30 p.m. Saturday. Officials surmise the fire may have been the work of vandals.

The building, which was a converted chicken coop, was used by the city for a collection point for entry fees to the dump. It had been placed at the dump entrance about two months ago and was usually occupied seven days per week from noon to dark.

Two units of the Canyon fire department arrived at the fire

Church Group At 60th Meet

The 60th annual session of the Amarillo District Conference of Methodist Churches was held in Panhandle Monday evening with Charles Lutrick, district superintendent, presiding. Representing the First United Methodist Church of Canyon at the session were Rev. J. Frank Peery, Dr. Hubert Thompson, Lawrence Brotherton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Voss, Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Madge Culbertson, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Matthews, Ed Garner, Todd Dyess, Sherry Foster and Miss Mattie Sue Howell.

Dr. Matthews, Garner and Dyess spoke on student work and ministerial training. Voss discussed the camping program at Ceta Canyon. Rev. Peery and Miss Patterson attended a briefing session on the Methodist home at Waco and Jack Downing was re-elected as a district trustee.

scene too late to salvage the all-wood building. A sofa and chairs inside the building were destroyed.

Damage was estimated at about $400-$450 by City Manager Howard Northcutt.

Construction of the building to take tolls for entrance to the grounds has been a sore spot for some county and city residents.

On the road leading to the dump grounds, a heap of trash was found burning by the fire department.

"We feel it possibly could have been vandals," said Fire Capt. Joe Rice.

A witness, who has a view of the dump ground from a considerable distance, said the building seemed to burn all of a sudden.

Canyon firemen were busy again about 3:30 p.m. Sunday when a large barn about four miles north of the city on the Dutch Cleavinger farm caught fire.

Five units of the department fought the blaze before it was doused about three hours later. Rice said the fire destroyed the barn as well as chicken feeding equipment located inside.

Cause of the fire, according to Rice, was burning weeds.

Bufs Compile Fifth Win Record

The 1969 version of the West Texas State University Buffalo football team became the fifth consecutive Buffalo squad to compile a winning record.

When the Buffaloes ended their season Saturday in Hattiesburg, Miss., with a 10-9 loss to Southern Mississippi they had won six games and lost four.

Coach Joe Kerbel pushed his 10-year record at WTSU to 61 wins, 39 losses and one tie. During the last four years the Buffaloes have a 35-16 mark.

Kerbel's 1969 Buffaloes set one new school record, that of picking off 26 opponent passes. Eight Buffalo defenders got into the act intercepting passes, led by Troy Anderson's eight interceptions. Raymond Brown five, Billy Lantow and Bill McKinney two each, and Gary Connor, Stan Hansen and Jeff Mailhard one piece.

Fullback Duane Thomas finished among the nation's top 10 rushers with 1,072 yards. His career total of 2,376 yards ranks third among all-time leading Buffalo ball carriers.

Quarterback Clarence Reddic moved into the top 10 scorers in the school's history. His 59 points this year, along with his 67 last fall give him 126 points and places him seventh among the school's leading scorers. Reddic's 68 pass completions during the year place him seventh among the school's leading passers.

A rebuilding year faced the Buffalo coaching staff at the start of the year. Only three offensive starters returned from the 1968 club, which won eight and lost two. There were eight defensive starters returning, but the burden of winning and losing early in the

- Accumulation of dust and lint may clog burners.
- Sleep with the bedroom window open at least a crack.
- Heating equipment must be located well away from combustibles.

Mayor Paul Lindsey signs a proclamation naming Dec. 13 as Girlstown Day in Canyon. Watching are Woody Pond, left, Weyman Brown and Ken Stokes.

Girlstown Day Is Proclaimed

Mayor Paul Lindsey proclaimed Dec. 13 as Girlstown Day in Canyon at the request of the Canyon Jaycees and several townspeople who are collecting foodstuffs, bed clothing and clothing for the Whiteface organization.

The Jaycees are working in conjunction with Woody Pond, Randall County juvenile probation officer, and Mrs. Helen Christianson, a resident of South Amarillo.

During the day Dec. 13, several girls from Girlstown will be in the parking lot at Cooper's Market here to accept donations from townspeople. A bus, which Pond said was purchased by the residents of Canyon, Randall County and the surrounding area, will be at the parking lot. Donations will be accepted from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Pond said hundreds of items have already been collected for Girlstown, including bed clothing, clothing and food. He said several Scout groups are collecting items.

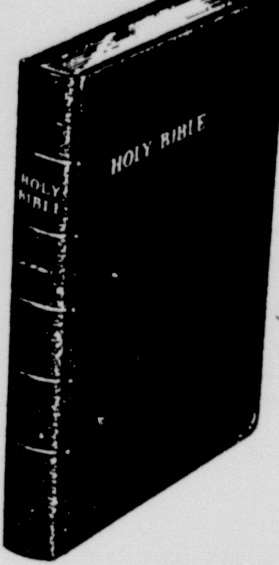

About 6 p.m. Dec. 13, the Girlstown Bus will be loaded with all donated items and will be taken to Whiteface. Pickup trucks will also be used to haul the goods to Girlstown.

Pond said large barrels were placed in all Canyon grocery stores Tuesday for residents' convenience in donating items.

He said any resident who wishes to have items picked up may call his office, the Canyon Chamber of Commerce office, the Randall County Sheriff's office, the office of Ken Stokes or Weyman Brown.
